Theodore Hoffman Executed at White Plains, N. Y.—He Dies Protesting His Innocence.

John Coyle to Swing at Harrisburg Tomorrow—Killed Himself Because of the Disgrace.

Business Failures—Another Wreck—Congress and the News in General.

A Murderer Executed.

WHITE PLAINS, N. Y., April 18.—The execution of Theodore Hoffman, for the murder of Zif. Marks, a Jewish peddler, attracted a large crowd to-day, but only a few were permitted to see the execution. Hoffman slept soundly last night, but ate sparingly this morning. As the hour for the execution approached, he began to grow nervous, but when his spiritual adviser arrived he seemed to derive some consolation. The condemned walked firmly to the gallows with the minister. Prayer was said and the noose adjusted. The rope was out at 7:12 o'clock. There was scarcely a struggle. He protested his innocence to the last, but left a letter to be opened after the execution, which is thought to contain his confession. The letter, which was directed to the sheriff, stated that time would establish his innocence.

Still Another.

PRITTSBURG, April 18.—By the neglect of the telegraph operator at Steubenville to deliver proper train orders, two freight trains on the Pan Handle road collided near Wheeling Junction this morning, at 4 o'clock. The committee on public lands have instructed Representative Rayson that they would make a favorable report on his bill to prevent the unlawful occupancy of public lands. J. N. Honored by Legislators.

"Immortal J. N." is a big card wherever he goes, and last week he dropped into the Ohio legislature, where he created lots of fun. A motion to take a recess of five minutes to allow the members to pay their respects to the "Immortal J. N." was voted down, but "J. N." assumed the pressure like a true philosopher. He contented himself by taking a seat beside the speaker pro tem.

While Judge Littler was making a speech against Speaker Pro Tem. Brunner's ruling on the previous question, "J. N." majestically ascended the rostrum, and the judge paused a moment and exclaimed: "Hail to the Chief." The house applauded loudly.

About the only thing that relieved the monotony of the proceedings of the day was when it took a recess at noon and the "Immortal J. N." came forward and made a few remarks concerning the mysterious dispensations of Providence that from time to time bless the state of Ohio with a democratic legislature.

When pain from Rheumatism or Neuralgia is intense, people are apt to throw away a great deal of money in search of relief. They needn't do it. Says G. H.
Hotchkiss, 327 Grandstreet, New Haven:
"After enduring intense suffering for six months from Rheumatism, employing
four different physicians, without relief,
and spending many dollars for medicines, I accidentally heard of Atchilphors, and tried it. Three bottles cured me entirely in less than three weeks'

A Perfect Medicine Chest.
Sing Sing, N. Y., Post Office, }
March 19, 1883 }

One week ago, while engaged in my duties as assistant postmaster, I was taken with a violent pain or kink in my back; it was so painful I could hardly breathe, and I ached all over my body.
I immediately sent for an Alcock's Porous Plaster and applied it over the seat of pain; in twenty minutes I was entirely relieved and cured. I have used Al-cock's plasters in my family for over twenty years, and have found them wonderfully effective in curing coughs, colds, and pulmonary difficulties. They are a perfect medicine chest; they cure without the slightest pain or inconvenience,
never leaving a mark on the skin.

Thomas Leary,
President of Village of Sing Sing, N. Y.

When purchasing a Porous Plaster be sure to get "Alcock's." All other so-called Porous Plasters are imitations.
